Volunteers sought to help West Lafayette welcome students August 26

West Lafayette, Ind. – August 7, 2008 -- The City of West Lafayette and Purdue University Community Partnership Teams are recruiting residents to volunteer to welcome Purdue University students to town.

Those interested should gather at 6:30 p.m., Tuesday, August 26, in front of the Purdue Visitor Information Center on Northwestern Avenue.

Volunteers will be given T-shirts, supplies and a map showing their area to cover. They'll go door-to-door in campus neighborhood areas, delivering welcome packets that include a student guide to living off campus, recycling information, guidelines for responsible entertaining, residents' rights, and a list of helpful phone numbers and websites.
